§ 102-1. License required.

Hereafter, it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to hawk, peddle, sell or offer for sale any goods, wares, merchandise, books, periodicals, magazines or other commodity or services; or to solicit subscriptions to books, magazines, periodicals or other commodities in, upon or along any of the public streets, alleys or public places of the Borough of West View or by going from house to house for the purpose of such hawking, peddling, selling or offering to sell; or to solicit orders for agreements to purchase any goods, wares, merchandise, books, magazines or periodicals or other commodity or services; or to solicit subscriptions to books, magazines, periodicals or other commodities in, upon or along any of the public streets, alleys or public places in the Borough of West View or by traveling from house to house for such purposes without having first procured a license to do so.

§ 102-2. Licensing procedures and requirements.

- A. It shall be the duty of any person, firm, corporation, association or other entity desiring to do any of the things set forth in § 102-1, within the limits of the Borough of West View, to make application to the Chief of Police of the Borough of West View for a license to do so.
- B. It shall be the duty of said Chief of Police to investigate said application, the character of the person desiring the license, the character of the goods to be sold and the contracts to be entered into, in relation to the same, and if, after such investigation, the Chief of Police is convinced that the transactions desired to be carried on are fair, honest and in the public interest, a license shall be granted upon payment of the fees hereinafter set forth.
- C. If, after investigation, the Chief of Police is of the opinion that the transactions sought to be carried out by the license are not honest, fair and in the public interest, he shall refuse the license and the petitioner may, if he so desires, appeal from the decision of the Chief of Police to the Council of the Borough of West View within ten (10) days, at which time the Council of the Borough of West View, after due investigation and consideration, may authorize the issuance of the license if it sees proper to do so, upon payment of the licensing fees as are hereinafter set forth.
- D. The submission of the application shall be deemed the express authority of the applicant given to the police to investigate, by contact with local or state agencies, former customers or other business groups, the validity of the application and the business reputation of the applicant. The applicant shall set forth his principal place of business and shall establish a valid mailing address on his application.

§ 102-3. Prohibitions.

- A. No hawking or peddling shall be permitted on Sundays or other business holidays recognized as holidays by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, except between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m.

- B. No hawking or peddling shall be done on any private property posted with no-solicitation signs, and any such violation shall be good and sufficient reason for the immediate revocation of the permit.

§ 102-4. Fees.

- A. [Amended 9-11-85 by Ord. No. 1298, approved 9-11-85]

The fees for such licenses shall be as follows:

- (1) For each person soliciting orders for sales of goods, wares, merchandise, books, magazines and periodicals or other commodities by going from house to house or upon any of the streets, alleys or public places of the Borough of West View: twenty dollars ($20.) per day, one hundred dollars ($100.) per week, three hundred fifty dollars ($350.) per month and one thousand seven hundred fifty dollars ($1,750.) per year.
 - (2) For each person selling or offering for sale goods, wares, merchandise, books or other commodities by going from house to house and traveling on foot: the same as is set forth in Subsection A(1) above.
 - (3) For each vehicular peddler, as above: twenty dollars ($20.) per day; for the driver of each vehicle, twenty dollars ($20.) per day; and for each person selling or assisting in the sales of goods, wares, merchandise, books or other commodities from such vehicles, one hundred dollars ($100.) per week and three hundred fifty dollars ($350.) per month.
- B. This section shall not apply to persons selling or offering to sell milk, farm products or food.
- C. The Council of the Borough of West View, in its discretion, may designate to the Borough Manager exceptions to this chapter for any nonprofit or charitable organization
